LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Be careful! Goupons or similar advertising has recently been deemed illegal in Oregon, and other states are looking closely at this matter. It is currently legal for DC practices in Nevada to offer such deals. But, as with all advertising, the wording and the giveaway must comply with Nevada law. Some things to consider if you decide to utilize this type of marketing: 1) A copy of a document explaining what is free and what you will charge for must be signed by the patient and kept in his/her file; 2) the name of at least one chiropractor must be included in the promotion, 3) the term "specialist" or "expert," unless you are registered with the Board as such, are usually not allowed, and 4) any free diagnostic service(s) have to be complete enough to make a proper diagnosis.

Under NRS 634.556(3), "If a licensee provides diagnostic services, including, without limitation, examinations and x-rays, free of charge or at a discounted rate pursuant to an advertisement, the licensee shall provide those services in a sufficiently complete and thorough manner so as to allow the licensee to make a proper diagnosis."

Under NAC 634.556(1), "No separate charge may be made for the professional evaluation of diagnostic tests or procedures which are provided free of charge or at a discount, regardless of whether the professional evaluation is made at the time of the initial office visit or at a later time."

I recommend all licensees read the advertising guide for Nevada DCs found on the first page of the Board's website entitled: "A CHIROPRACTIC PHYSICIANS' GUIDE TO ETHICAL AND LEGAL ADVERTISING IN NEVADA."

David G. Rovetti, DC
President, CPBN

The CPBN has authority only over its licensees and certificate holders. The Board enforces Nevada Revised Statute and Nevada Administrative Code 634. Funding for all of its activities are derived solely from the monies collected from licensees and certificate holders. The CPBN has no authority to take action on employment issues, or issues that generally relate to the chiropractic profession. These matters should be addressed by the Nevada Labor Commission, the professional association or other such entities.

GUIDELINES FOR CLASS IV LASER USE

A Class IV device must be designed, designated and issued as a Class IV Therapeutic Laser only, not "industrial," "surgical" or "military" grade;

A Class IV Therapeutic laser cannot emit an ablative beam and may not be utilized for ablation (cutting or burning of tissues, or hair removal) under any circumstances by either a DC or a CA; and

A CA assisting in Class IV Therapeutic Laser may not be trained solely by a DC or by any other employee of a practice, but must be trained by an educational institution or through a bona fide laser device manufacturer/company distributing the Class IV Therapeutic Laser device. This means that each staff person performing Class IV Therapeutic Laser in a practice must be individually trained to use the device and thus be able to produce proof of such training upon request.

These guidelines do not apply to "cold" or "low-level" lasers, which are usually Class II and III lasers.

STANDARDS FOR RECORD KEEPING

The Board is often asked questions about patient records (including x-rays). Here is a list of some, but not all, of the things you need to know.

Your patient records must:

- Contain a list of chief complaint(s)
- Contain a history of the health of the patient
- Contain a treatment plan
- Be clear, legible, complete and accurate
- Contain the areas of the body that were treated and the patient's response to treatment.
- Be completed within 72 hours of treating or examining the patient
- Must be kept for five years according to State law; seven years according to federal Medicare law
- Current standards for record completeness state that negative tests, such as normal range of motion or normal reflexes, be indicated as such and not simply left blank on an examination form

With regard to patient record requests:

- Patient records must be sent out within five (5) business days following a valid request
- For most patient records, you may charge up to, but no more than, $.60 per page, plus reasonable charges for copying radiographs, plus postage. For copying records related to a worker's compensation claim, you may charge up to, but no more than $.30 per page. A signed worker's comp C-4 form has sufficient wording in the release to give legal protection for you to provide all records to those listed on the release. For records requested by a patient or their representative to support a Social Security claim, no monies may be charged
- Billing records are considered patient records. Unless requested not to do so by the requesting party, they should be included with the clinical records
- Although legal to do so, most doctors do not charge other doctors for copying and sending patient records to each other

Violation(s) of any of the statutes or regulations regarding patient records may result in disciplinary action from the Board and/or malpractice lawsuits.

Please remember, if not documented or recorded it was, in effect, NOT DONE.

Vice President, CPBN
